Capital Letter July 2018

July in Focus

A much quieter couple of months ahead of us over the summer. Our regular groups will continue to meet in July except for the Bookworm Club, who will be taking an academic break!

Thinking about your summer holidays, or planning one for the winter? Zoe Wishaw will be introducing her seminar "Powerful Travel Stories?" on 19th July. This seminar is designed to inspire attendees to consider their own approach with a fresh perspective so sign up and come along!

Expect to see lots of activity from Celebrating London, this month and next, especially from those who are not on holiday or are perhaps even back!

Looking further ahead

4 August The annual Pride Community Parade is the biggest and most exciting visual event in Brighton & Hove's calendar bringing the whole community out on to the city's streets as over 300,000 people participate and watch the spellbinding spectacular of our hugely successful "Carnival Of Diversity" - join us for a great day out!

Moving into September, Bookworms and London Naturally will be back from their summer break and we are pleased to offer two "specials" - a One-to-One ARPS Distinctions Review with Steve Smith FRPS on 15th September and Zoe Wishaw's workshop "Defining your Style" on 18 September - sign up here.

Comments

All of our regular events are available to all. RPS Members and Non-Members from London Region and elsewhere are welcome. Regular Meetings and Events are generally free or at minimal cost. There are charges for Distinctions Advisory Days and for special events, where we have to recover costs such as speaker fees and room hire: we try to keep these charges to a minimum.

If you have any questions at all at any time, please ask! Each event has a link on the web page to the organiser of that event, so that you can contact them directly.

For general enquiries, e-mail london@rps.org or londonro2@rps.org

For Distinctions advice or enquiries in general there is a lot of information on the website: if you have further questions, you can contact either Bath HQ on distinctions@rps.org or for London specific questions, please contact: londondist@rps.org
