Capital Letter August 2018

August in Focus

30th July (for one week). If you can, pop along to Spitalfields this week, enjoy the CafeArt Exhibition and vote for your favourite photo. Twenty photos have been chosen by a panel of judges as finalists and will now be voted on by members of the public for a chance to get into the 2019 CafeArt Photo Calendar. The launch is at 3.00pm today, 30th July/

4 August The annual Pride Community Parade is the biggest and most exciting visual event in Brighton & Hove's calendar bringing the whole community out on to the city's streets as over 300,000 people participate and watch the spellbinding spectacular of our hugely successful "Carnival Of Diversity" - join us for a great day out!

Micro- and Geographic Sub-Groups. London Naturally and Bookworms are taking a break in August, but the three geographic groups (North, SE and SW) continue to meet as usual, as does the Street Group. The itinerary has not yet been posted for the Street Walk, but we are planning on exploring the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and surroundings.... Watch the website for details!

There's still time to sign up to Celebrating London! To date we have photographed some 150 "fairs, festivals and events". The project will continue to the end of December and there will be a very high profile exhibition of our work in April 2019. Watch this space!

And the SWLondon Group will be staging another Exhibition at the Putney Library from 20th August. See the website here for more information.

Looking further ahead

Moving into September, Bookworms and London Naturally will be back from their summer break and we are pleased to offer two "specials" - a One-to-One ARPS Distinctions Review with Steve Smith FRPS on 15th September and Zoe Wishaw's workshop "Defining your Style" on 18 September - sign up here. (For this workshop to go

Work will be selected by you, the Members, at a one-day selection session later this year. All of our regular events are available to all. RPS Members and Non-Members from London Region and elsewhere are welcome. Regular Meetings and Events are generally free or at minimal cost. There are charges for Distinctions Advisory Days and for special events, where we have to recover costs such as speaker fees and room hire: we try to keep these charges to a minimum.

If you have any questions at all at any time, please ask! Each event has a link on the web page to the organiser of that event, so that you can contact them directly.
