Capital Letter June 2018

June in Focus

A fabulous time to sign up for the Celebrating London project with an unbelievable number of events and activities happening in the Captail this month. On 9 June alone, without taking in small local events, we have Trooping the Colour, the World Naked Bike Ride and Open Garden Squares Weekend - not to mention our Street Group adventure to Peckham!.

There are still Exhibitions for you to visit: London Region Members' Exhibition at the Putney Arts Theatre runs until 10 June ((extended by request of the venue), City Life at the Clapham Omnibus Cafe also runs until 10 June with a Private View on 4 June - and a new Exhibition at the Putney Library from 3 to 23 June reprises some of the Breathing London panels, together with new images from twelve RPS photographers. Not even on the website yet, but will be later today!!

Looking further ahead

Sign up now for for Zoe Wishaw's Seminar "What makes powerful travel stories?" on 19th July. People who work with Zoe find her advice compelling and we highly recommend this.

Preparing for your ARPS? If so, sign up next week (only just posted so no blue button as I write this...) for a One to One Distinction Review on Applied, Fine Art and Travel with Steve Smith FRPS on 15 September.

Links to all our events and more below.
