

Fine Art Nude Workshops
9th and 10th May 2014
The Forum, Cheltenham
Two days of Fine Art Nude Photography with Graham Whistler FRPS and Simon Walden

£85 per day or £150 for both days for DIG members,
£95 per day or £170 for both days for non-members

With only 16 attendees in 2 groups of 8 you will have lots of shooting time. You will be working with two leading trainers, four professional nude models in a glorious regency building in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire.

These are interactive working days - you do all the photography. You will go home with some stunning work and lots of new skills.

All model images are released for competition and portfolio use.

FRIDAY 9th MAY:

You will learn how to:

- Use studio lighting
- Pose a model for best effect
- Light and shoot a high-key nude
- Light and shoot a low-key nude
- Light and shoot a mid-key nude

SATURDAY 10th MAY:

You will learn how to

- Use studio lighting
- Pose a model for best effect
- Light and shoot a dancer
- Light and shoot creative nudes
- Light and shoot abstract nudes

Throughout the days both tutors are on-hand for over the shoulder coaching and more general advice on all aspects of photography, including studio work, lighting equipment advice, image critique, photoshop techniques and more.

"The selection of models was excellent. They were all professional and helpful. Both Simon and Graham worked well together, with styles of presentation complementing one another." - Mervyn Pugh
