

We have taken on board feedback we have received from a number of people who wish to book sessions for Polina (Flowers) and the Brian Collier (Portraiture). We would ask that you only book one of the talks, as they are on at the same time, and just one of each of the sessions or just one session if that is what you wish.

Below are links that take you to a booking form where you are just asked to enter your name and email

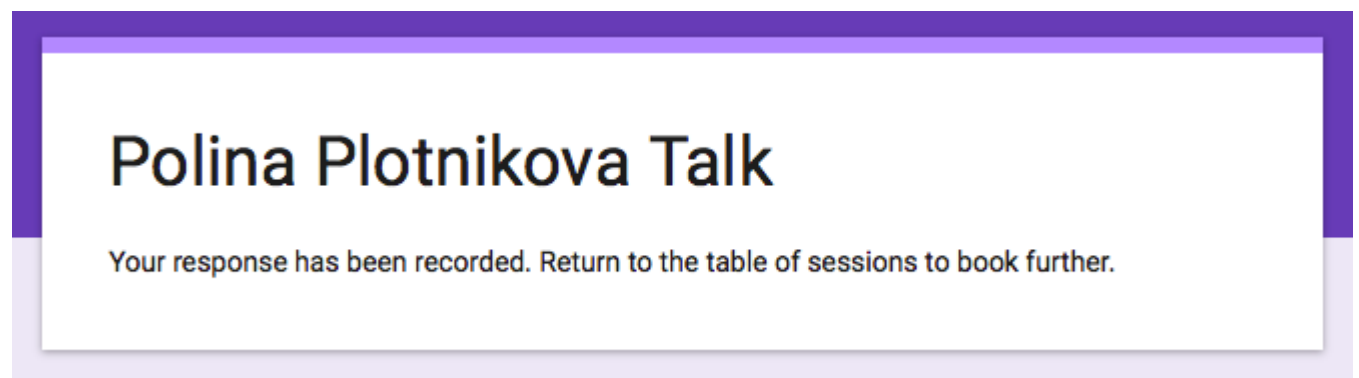

Polina Plotnikova

This form is no longer accepting responses, and has been set to automatically close by digexpo@rps.org

If you buy one 4 person ticket you can enter 4 times but please drop digexpo@rps.org an email stating which sessions you booked so this can be cross referenced to you 4 up ticket. Book with the names and emails of those who will use your tickets as those names will be on the attendance register and include that info in the email to digexpo@rps.org

If you have any difficulty please email digexpo@rps.org
