

The Showcasing Yorkshire Print Exhibition 2017

Entrant Application:

This Print Exhibition is open to all photographers residing in Yorkshire, whether or not they are members of the Royal Photographic Society. Proof of Society membership or residence may be required.

Print Category: Open

Maximum Images per photographer: Three

The Process:

1. Application and Digital Submissions
2. Digital Selection
3. Print Submissions
4. A range of Exhibition Venues and Web Galleries
5. Prints will eventually be offered for collection by the entrant, or destroyed,

Procedure & Requirements

First round of selection process - Digital Files of Prints:

1. Members and non-members of the RPS Yorkshire Region [as on the RPS membership lists] [any person/photographer residing in Yorkshire] may enter prints. There will be a limit of 45 final selected prints to exhibit.
2. In the first instance, all Images must be supplied as a digital file. Maximum of three images per person.
3. Images selected for the Yorkshire Print Exhibition can only be included if the photographer supplies a suitable digital file in the first instance as 2MB or 1400 x 1024 pixels maximum Jpegs.
4. A Web Gallery of selected images will be published within the Yorkshire Region section of the RPS website, and Welcome To Yorkshire Website. The photographers' copyright will be cited.
5. Authors should send suitably formatted images - maximum/minimum size eg 2MB or 1400 x 1024 pixels max.
6. Alternatively a CD-R or DVD may be posted in advance to Mary Crowther ARPS. Media will be copied and used to the requirements of the Digital files entry requirements. File names should identically match the title to be shown on the print.
7. Image files may be in a format, which is readily readable by a PC, MAC or Android device.

Requirements – Print Selection:

1. Only: Members and non-members of the RPS Yorkshire Region [as on the RPS membership lists] [or any person/photographer residing in Yorkshire] may enter prints as selected from the digital files selection process. There will be a limit of 45 final selected prints to exhibit.
2. Any selected entrant must provide mounted prints. There is no size restriction, although a card mount of 50 x 40cm is conventional, with maximum thickness of 4mm to allow framing. If mount-cutting equipment is not available, the entrant may securely stick the print on mount card. The photographer must attach a label on the reverse side at the lower right corner of each print to show the title, and photographer's name.

3. Prints must be delivered to collection points on specified dates as published.
The organisers will not offer either a postal, or a deposit and return service. However, entrants may collaborate together so that a proxy handles the prints from groups.
4. The organisers will use good care, but cannot be responsible for damage or loss. There must be no Velcro on prints, or anything, which might cause damage to other prints when stacked.
5. All prints will then be on display for the length of the exhibition timetable, and awarded an - 'Exhibited' label as a record. Based on the pre-advised titles. There will be a popular vote for 'Best Print'
