26 & 27 SEPTEMBER 2020

MESSAGE from the FESTIVAL DIRECTOR

Welcome to "An International Audio Visual Retrospective" organised by The Royal Photographic Society's Audio Visual Group. This event came about following the decision to postpone the RPS International AV Festive due to the Coronavirus pandemic. Alastair Taylor came up with idea of having a Retrospective and the Committee all agreed it was an excellent idea. I will be writing an article for the next AV News about organising this Retrospective. In the meantime I'd like to thank Alastair Taylor for the idea and hosting the event on Zoom, Andrew Gagg for the graphics, Jill and John for "projecting" the AVs, Linda Gibbs for preparing the programme, introducing the AVs, and publicity, and Sheila Haycox for publishing the event on the RPS website and organising the booking portal and finally to all the authors who have kindly loaned their work.

I hope you enjoy the "Retrospective" which I'm sure will be a very successful event.
