12. Collaborations are permitted
13. Manipulation of images using software or in a darkroom is permitted
14. If an image is from a genre, for example, documentary, photojournalism, travel or natural history, where staging the scene and excessive post-processing or manipulation is not generally acceptable, the image can be submitted, however please make clear in the submission text that the authenticity of the subject has been altered

- 15. Submissions must be anonymous and not include the photographer's name in an image title, description, artist statement or as a watermark
16. The RPS reserves the right to reject any entry/image at its discretion
17. The RPS may request original files to check authenticity
18. The RPS may exclude any images which, in its opinion, could cause offence
19. Images that have previously been selected and exhibited in RPS exhibitions are not eligible
20. The RPS will verify shortlisted entrants' personal information, including post-nominals
21. The RPS will not be responsible for any loss or damage to submitted work
22. Shortlisted photographers will need to have access to high resolution files to print their work and if selected, for the purpose of promotion of the exhibition. This should be taken into consideration when submitting images
23. Shortlisted prints will not be returned except by arrangement with the RPS and when return shipping is paid

Selection

- 24. Entry will close for shortlisting at 23:59 BST on Tuesday 27 April 2021
25. All entries are reviewed, shortlisted, and selected anonymously
26. Additional written information must be complete, true, and accurate
27. Images will be initially longlisted by the RPS and then viewed and shortlisted by the selection panel
28. Photographers will be invited to provide prints of shortlisted images for the final selection
29. The RPS reserves the right to withdraw a shortlisted image if the print quality is below an acceptable standard
30. 100 prints will be selected, from the shortlisted prints, for the final exhibition
31. The panel will select the first prize and under 30s award. The RPS will select the solo-exhibition and photography commission. The editor of the RPS Journal will select the Journal features, and exhibition visitors to RPS Bristol will decide the visitor prize
32. Past prize winners from International Photography Exhibitions are not eligible to win prize money again with different images from the same body of work, except for the visitor's award
33. New images from a body of work that has previously been featured in an International Photography Exhibition are eligible to be selected for exhibition
34. In the unlikely event that a selector is unable to take part in the selection process, the RPS will invite another individual to stand in
35. No individual assessments are available, and the selectors' decision is final
36. The RPS will arrange for the selected prints to be mounted and framed for the touring exhibition at no additional cost to the entrant

- 37. If selected, The RPS will endeavour to contact the entrant to notify them of selection using the details provided by the entrant. If no communication is received from the selected photographer within 14 days of the notification, The RPS reserves the right to offer the place to another shortlisted entrant
- 38. At the end of the exhibition tour, exhibitors will be contacted regarding the return of their prints, which will be at their expense
