

RPS London 2026 Project
Everyday Life in London
Judy's Random Thoughts
25th June 2026

1 – Generic ideas

2 - Locations

Street Art and Artists – they are a community and a culture too...

Outdoor performances – e.g. King's Cross outdoor (free) theatre, dancing – they meet every week and are a community and a culture

Parades and Protests – especially small ones – the plural is important 4th July Pride in London Sub-groups

Travel and Transport

Commuters at Stations

Blocked traffic/road works/road diversions

Traffic Cones

Bicycles

Sports

Rowers/Rowing Clubs, Sailing Clubs, Park Runs, Tennis/Padel etc.Groups, Skate parks. Outdoor table tennis tables (everywhere). Outdoor gyms. Boxing Clubs. Cricket – local clubs

Queues & Queuing

At cinemas, theatres, bus stops, sports grounds, stations

Markets –

Small local markets or ones with specific cultural influences: Tottenham (S. America), Whitechapel (Asian), Southall (Asian), Walthamstow

“Food”

Meal deliveries

Pub and Dinking Culture

Food on the run

Places with significant cultures

Southall, Wembley, Whitechapel, Brick Lane, Knightsbridge/Kensington/St James/Elephant and Castle/Walworth Road

Culture

People at local exhibitions

At Libraries / community events

Outdoor art exhibitions, open studio events – but bring in the community cultural element. For example – a former aviary in Cannizaro Park in Wimbledon has been taken over as an environmental display organised by pupils at a local school

Green Spaces

Allotments/Community Gardens

People with dogs – dog walks . Monthly Dog walking Group meetups e.g. Bulldogs Richmond Park! S.W. London/Richmond Park Monthly Bulldog Meet Up | Meetup (Have also seen Dachshunds and others)

Horses in London – from military through to Wimbledon Riding School and City Farms

And just people

Being very British – maybe picnicking groups

Ramblers Groups

Our own RPS London groups: Bookgroup is a true example of Culture and Community
