Find Inspiration and Stay Inspired

The award-winning RPS Journal showcases renowned and emerging photographers pushing the boundaries in genres including science, art and documentary.

The RPS curates and exhibits inspiring exhibitions, showcasing contemporary photography from emerging and established photographers.

Get Recognition as a Photographer

RPS Distinctions are one of the most widely recognised and respected photography qualifications in the world. Helping you to develop and ultimately demonstrate technical excellence, artistic vision, and personal growth.

The RPS also offer an exciting range of opportunities year-round including competitions, open calls and bursaries.

Be Part of a Thriving Community

With regional groups and Special Interest Groups RPS members can connect with like-minded photographers on their photographic journey, join events, discussion groups, enter competitions and more.

Expand Your Skills and Knowledge

Our workshops are an affordable way to help you develop and discover the type of photography you want to do. All RPS led workshops are developed and approved by the RPS.

Become a member

Our commitment as an educational charity is to bring photography to everyone. Our members support an organisation that provides a platform for photographers at all levels, while they follow in the footsteps of thousands of photographers before them.
