

Hello and welcome to the September newsletter

I am writing this as I sit in the sun in sunny Spain. Today I hear the Belgian Grand Prix was abandoned due to rain and in fact the summer has not been good in northern Europe.

I suppose the bright sunshine is not that good for photography, but it is good for my soul at least!

In this newsletter the emphasis is on the following:

1. Online exhibition
2. South East Region online AGM

Online exhibition

Thank you to all those who submitted images to our online exhibition. If you would like to view the 69 images that were chosen out of the 200+ images submitted, here is the link:

South East Region online AGM

This is going ahead on 19th September at 1000. We have 2 speakers that will really interest you alongside all the normal business of an AGM.

Stewart Wall, MA ARPS PGCE, well known within the RPS as the Regional Organiser for East Midlands and a RPS distinctions panel member with a talk on Shooting Hyper-Local

*Andrew Page, CEO and founder of Positive View with a talk on The Power of Photography: Transforming young lives

Stewart has also curated our online exhibition and will presenting his choices at the end of the day. He will be showing his commended and highly commended choices as well as his own personal favourite. The author of this image will be getting a £30 voucher for Park Cameras

In order to register for the AGM, please follow this link:

This will take you to the RPS SE web page where can register and download documents for the AGM.

I have 2 requests:

1. If you wish to raise any questions or raise Any Other Business, could you please send them to me at the email address below.

2. There are several vacancies on the committee for enthusiastic photographers. If you would like to join us, please let me know
