During the day there will also be

- an opportunity to show at least one piece of your own work
- discussion with other participants
- opportunities to suggest future Group activities

This event will not be recorded or live-streamed. Its success is dependent on live interaction.

Lunch is included (with all dietary needs catered for) and there will be a dinner at extra cost in the evening for which a menu and tickets will be available soon

We hope that, on Sunday 21st April Kav Dadfar/Jordan Banks will run a workshop based around creating successful photo essays for publication. This will be for a maximum of 10 attendees and will be charged separately. We are currently unable to confirm this because of their work commitments. If it is not possible then they will run it at another time.

Some local photo walks/visits will be led by members of the Group on the Sunday.

All who attend are invited to the dinner at the Arnos Manor Hotel to continue the discussion and to share some social time together.

This is a fairly informal occasion where the aim is to relax together.

You will need to choose one item from each course. All dietary options can be catered for so please let us know if your needs are not met within the choices here.

The cost is

3 course - £29.95 per person

2 course – £25.95 per person
