RPS Scotland will be holding one of their popular face-to-face photoforums in the Southwest this summer – the first since the start of the pandemic!

Photographers are invited to bring along up to six related prints or PDIs to discuss in a friendly supportive environment. Work could be part of a panel, or a project that you are working on, work for an exhibition, or a technique that you are developing. It is not a distinction advisory day, although anyone working towards a distinction might find it useful to discuss their work.

A buffet lunch will be available (pre-booking required).
