

Street Photography – talk walk talk

Digital Imaging, Scottish and SW England Regions are collaborating to offer a three part Street Photography experience.

A Zoom talk on Developing Street Photography January 13th 7pm. by photojournalist Tom Langlands. Tom had a first career as an architect but is also a lifelong enthusiastic photographer. Since leaving his architecture practice he has run photography workshops and contributed regularly to the Celtic Life International magazine. One of his recent projects was documentation of his locality through lockdown.

Tom will be giving us pointers for producing our own effective street images.

Photo walks

Following the talk your local RPS Region are co-ordinating some meet ups for us to practice.

Inspired by Tom's images and discussion we will co-ordinate opportunities to meet up with fellow photographers at 3 venues

Plymouth

Saturday 21st January 2023 meet at 11.00 at The Box, Tavistock Place, Plymouth PL4 8AX – contact southwestchair@rps.org

Exeter

Saturday 28th January 2023 meet at 11.00 at Exeter Cathedral front entrance - contact janet.haines@me.com

Truro

Saturday 4th February 2023 meet at 11.00 at Truro Cathedral front entrance – contact southwestchair@rps.org

Review Discussions - talk

After the walks your RPS representatives will offer you the opportunity of sharing a few of your images and discussing them with other participants.

- In SW England this will be on Friday 17 February as part of the Regions AGM programme. The meeting is at Make (was the Devon Guild), Riverside Mill, Fore St, Bovey Tracey, Newton Abbot TQ13 9AF.

Booking

To book this three part opportunity sign up for the online talk CLICK HERE. (This will open the RPS Portal for Event Booking – you will need to scroll down to the bottom of the page to see more information.)